Reading Café

Huge thanks to Miss Murfin who organised a brilliant Reading Café session for our Y4 children.

Thanks also to Lloyd Sherratt, a parent and author, who engaged all the children with a fantastic book reading along with Mrs Sherratt.

Miss Murfin also gave a whistle stop workshop on ideas for helping to develop reading further at home.

Thank you to Mrs Brammer for making some delicious biscuits - we all know that fed children are happy children.

And finally thanks to the Barton Library volunteers who made everyone so welcome and created some lovely activities for the children to enjoy.

Don't forget to add the date to your diary for the Y3 and Y5 Reading Café, which we hope will be just as enthusiastically supported.

Best wishes, Mrs Sharpe
