Activity 1

Autumn is probably my favourite season of the year with colourful changes all around and only a few weeks to go until Christmas! When else can you walk down the fruit and vegetable aisle of your local supermarket and find rows of pumpkins, chestnuts ready to roast and sticky toffee apples in their rappers? Every year, I always visit a bonfire and fireworks display. This year, I had the privilege of being invited to a Guy Fawkes Night spectacular being hosted by my neighbour. It was a fabulous evening!

Mr. Whoops needs to practise these words:

Thanks for your help! I'll get practising these words if only I could find where I'd left my pencil!

As you all know, I am often guilty of being a little clumsy so I maybe shud have got in a professional plumber to fit my replacment boiler rather than having a go at it myself. How was I to know that an explosion would ocur and that the debri would damage every veichle on my street? My very understanding neighbours are used to me ocasionaly having the odd accident but they all had very solem faces when they saw the damage to their cars. I was very lucky to escape with only a small burn on my thum!

Mr Whoops needs to practise these words:

Thanks for sorting these for me... I do get myself in an awful muddle sometimes!

I musst remember to visit my bank as soon as possible to discuss my recent mortgage statment. I was terribly shocked when I received a docuement through the post in a bright red envelope to say I had missed my payments. Rarly have I been so insulted; I shal be having stern words with the bank manager as I have never been so much as a day late sending in my money. Tomorrow morning, I wil put on my smartest suit, tie a not in my poshest tie and march down there and demand to see the managgement. They'll see no movment from me until I get a full apology!

Mr Whoops needs to practise these words:

Oh no! Didn't I spell these correctly? It's not like me to get myself mixed-up!
