

Activity Sheet Invasion Answers

Lower Ability

55BC

1. The Celts were living in Britain in 55BC.
2. The Celts were waiting for them so the Romans had to fight whilst in the water.

54BC

1. 10,000 Roman soldiers came to Britain in 54BC.
2. Some tribes gave the Romans money so the Romans would not attack them.
3. The Romans had to leave to fight Gaul, which we now know as France.

43AD

1. Emperor Claudius sent troops in 43AD.
2. The soldiers split into 3 groups.
3. Defend means to resist attack or protect against.

Middle Ability

55BC

1. The Celts were living in Britain in 55BC.
2. The leader of the Roman army in Gaul was Julius Caesar.
3. The Romans couldn't land in Dover as lots of Celts were waiting for them there.
4. They landed on a beach and had to fight whilst in the water which they weren't used to.

54BC

1. 5 legions of soldiers came to fight Britain.
2. Britain was easy to fight in 54BC as they were not prepared.
3. The Romans said they would not attack the tribes if they gave them money.
4. The Romans had to leave early to fight Gaul and Roman traders came to Britain.

43AD

1. Emperor Claudius wanted to invade Britain because he wanted to show how powerful he was and make the Roman empire bigger.
2. The Roman soldiers set up camp at Hod Hill In the South.
3. There are lots of remains of enemy soldiers which suggest there was a fierce battle at Maidenhead.

Higher Ability

55BC

1. The Celts were living in Britain in 55BC.
2. The leader of the Roman army in Gaul was Julius Caesar.
3. The Romans couldn't land in Dover as lots of Celts were waiting for them there.
4. They landed on a beach and had to fight whilst in the water which they weren't used to.

54BC

1. 5 legions of soldiers came to fight Britain.
2. King Cassivellaunus, of Britain, was defeated.
3. Britain was easy to attack in 54BC as they were not prepared.
4. The Romans said they would not attack the tribes if they gave them money.
5. The Romans had to leave early to fight Gaul and Roman traders came to Britain.

43AD

1. Emperor Claudius wanted to invade Britain because he wanted to show how powerful he was and make the Roman empire bigger.
2. King Verica, from Britain asked for the help of Emperor Claudius to defeat Caratacus (also from Britain).
3. The Roman soldiers set up camp at Hod Hill In the South.
4. There are lots of remains of enemy soldiers which suggest there was a fierce battle at Maidenhead.