Happy Celebrating!

As always, parents, please check the clips first to ensure you are happy for your child to watch them.

Please continue choosing from the activities below:

1. VE Day Bunting and VE Day Themed Colouring: decorate your house with your pictures!

<https://www.teachstarter.com/gb/blog/origami-transforming-star-using-sticky-notes-gb/>

Follow the instructions and make a medal out of clay, or an origami style medal or bake some medals following these instructions:

'Code Cracking for beginners'

<https://bletchleypark.org.uk/our-story/why-it-matters/storm-clouds-gather>

Read about the key role of Bletchley Park codebreakers during the war and then have a go at cracking some Morse code messages.

(Just be careful as the Morse Code alphabet is on p.4 but the answers are on p.3 so cover your eyes as you scroll down!).

4. VE Day Reading Comprehension - remember  is the toughest.

5. VE Day Teacup design - how about trying to make one from clay? Playdoh? Lego?

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=79sTSq6gQ8M&vl=en>

6. 'We shall fight them on the beaches' Can you write a speech as Winston Churchill?

7. How about a 'VE Day Celebration' acrostic poem?

8. Investigate and make some wartime recipes e.g. Eggless sponge or bread pudding.

The recipe <https://www.lovefood.com/recipes/57260/potato-piglets-recipe> was devised to commemorate the 70th Anniversary of VE Day - why not make it for your dinner or create your own recipe to celebrate this 75th Anniversary.

9. Research one of the veterans - a person who is an ex-member for the armed forces - and create a fact file about them.

10. VE Day spitfire - draw or make a paper spitfire <https://redwhiteblueday.co.uk/wp-content/uploads/2019/01/RWB-2017-Spitfire-Instructions.pdf>

Think this might be slightly too hard!

11. Look at the work of Henry Moore. Although he is most famous for his sculptures, during WWII he drew a number of sketches of the people using the underground as a shelter. How do these images make you feel? What techniques has the artist used? Can you copy his style?

12. What else? Can you think of something that you would like to do to celebrate VE Day? Use your imagination and wow us!!
