Dictation Activity Answers

Dictation Activity 1

Remembrance Sunday is a day where we publicly remember the men and women who fought for our country. Bravely and nobly, they went into battle during two world wars and put their lives on the line on a daily basis. Tragically, some did not survive. Eventually, the wars did come to an end though and many were able to return to their families safely. It is important that we continue to pay tribute to these brave people as they truly are heroes.

Dictation Activity 2

Frantically, Jack climbed down the beanstalk and quickly ran home. While the giant had been distracted by greedily eating his human stew, Jack had easily managed to steal the golden egg. His mother couldn't believe her eyes. It was quite possibly the biggest egg she had ever seen! She duly sent Jack back out to find even more gold. Wearily, he climbed to the top of the incredibly large plant again, and slyly snuck back into the giant's tremendous castle.

Dictation Activity 3

Ben's dad was wholly fed up of his son's idleness. Basically, he spent every hour of his day when not at school, lying lazily on his bed playing video games and only occasionally standing up to get food. No matter how sweetly and kindly Dad would ask him to tidy his bedroom, he never raised a finger. The best way to describe his room would be to call it a dirt pit that smelt strongly of sweaty feet! Well, no more! Dad had finally decided that this was the day when Ben would actually tidy up!
